From the Principal’s desk

Sickness
There is a lot of sickness circulating throughout our school community. We know of chest infections, Influenza B, Whooping Cough, Chickenpox and other tummy bugs which are affecting our children. If your child is experiencing an illness please keep him/her home from school until he/she is better. Many conditions are easily transmitted in the school environment where uncovered coughs and sneezes and the occasional pair of unwashed hands can spread germs. This increased level of sickness is not unique to Balgowlah North PS with local doctors advising that there are a number of bugs going around the general community.

Outdoor Cinema
Don’t forget our Cinema Under the Stars next Friday 11th September. The evening begins from 5:30pm with a sausage sizzle, watermelon and popcorn stalls, gelato cones and bottles of water available from the canteen. The movie, Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, Very Bad Day, will commence around 7pm and will conclude at approximately 8:30pm. Tickets are available online from Flexischools. Parents are reminded that as children will be in attendance this is an alcohol-free event.

Canteen
I am pleased to announce that the Department of Education has ratified our Canteen Tender Team’s decision to offer our canteen licence to Dan and Nina, a local husband and wife team, who are both qualified chefs. Dan & Nina come highly recommended and have an interesting vision for the future of our school canteen. They will officially take over on the first day of next term, Tuesday 6th October and I look forward to getting to know them. Thank you to Mylene for the fantastic service she has given to our school over the past 17 years and to the casual staff and volunteers who have worked tirelessly to ensure our children and parents have had the opportunity to utilise such a valuable service.

Fathers Day Breakfast
Thanks to everyone for supporting our Fathers Day Breakfast this Friday. We have had over 600 orders placed for Friday morning through Flexischools. The irresistible smell of coffee, short cut bacon and free range eggs will blanket our suburb from early on Friday morning. Thanks to all our amazing Dads for the job you do in raising our fabulous kids and thanks to Mrs Parsons and the teachers for organising the breakfast.

Partners in Learning Survey
Thanks to the parents who have already responded to our ‘Partners in Learning’ survey. We value your opinions to support our planning process. There’s still time to access the survey: https://nsw.tellthemfromme.com/j_acgei_security_check?j_username=parent16825&j_password=Bal3984

P&C Meeting
I look forward to seeing many of you at our P&C Meeting tomorrow night from 7:30pm in our library. Some items on the agenda include my principal’s report, NAPLAN summary, an update on the playground shade and canteen tender, and reports from our P&C sub-committees. Come along to share your ideas and be informed.

Assembly

This week’s 3 – 6 assembly will be led by 3j and they will also entertain us with an item. We welcome parents and friends to join us on Thursday and please be seated in the hall at 2.20pm.

Young Composers

Our aim is to empower our students with the art of the English language. The English Syllabus refers to students “composing a range of texts”. These texts may be written, digital or multimodal. We are looking forward to recognising and showcasing the work of Balgowlah North students in the newsletter.

1R has been constructing sentences using adjectives:

Under the freezing cold sky there were freezing cold mountains. Owen Chaloner

2B have been composing descriptions:

Cats are sleepy, intelligent creatures that like to pounce on their prey. Cats have very long tails and whiskers. They have a curved back which they roll on and they like to sleep in the sun sometimes. Cats walk in a very delicate and intelligent way. They like playing with things that make bell sounds and hang like string. Some people even have string with mice on the end with bells in them. Lucy Jones

Cats like to chase mice. They stalk their prey and then they pounce on it. They love to lie down in the sun. They are brown, cuddly and soft. Harry Darrow

Cats are cuddly and they have pink, wet noses and they have very fragile tails. Cats are playful and like chasing mice. Cats smell like fish, also they have long whiskers to help them hunt. This one has gorgeous, blue sparkling eyes. Eva Rae

2MT have been composing sentences using adjectives and adverbs:

Swiftly the dark, grey clouds approached the sandy beach. Juliette Roumanoff

Quickly the tall girl ran along the small, dirty path. Bayden Hookway

Suddenly a car came speeding in as fast as Usain Bolt. Aidan Fraser

Suddenly the huge tsunami lazily fell over all the horrified people. Josephine Roumanoff

Closely I looked at the huge dark cloud. Matthew Small Slowly the cloud lowered down to the bright yellow sand. Nico Ray

3A have composed some imaginative stories about camping:

Camp Troublemakers

All of Year 3 was assembled at the gate. Excitement rushed through some, anxiousness flowed through others. But there was one group of boys that was different. Those boys were known as, The Blood Hound Boys! “Are you ready,” shouted Ms Marsh over the loud speaker. “Yeah!” the boys replied. “Ready to pull off record-breaking pranks!” laughed one of the boys. Now, as you can probably guess, The Blood Hound Boys were the most troublesome troublemakers in the known universe. Owen Malley

Camp Gone Wrong

When we arrived at camp, everything had gone wrong. There were cabins wearing boots, bins with wings, toilets jumping around everywhere and...is that...a...GIANT FROG on the roof? Odd isn’t it? Furthermore the challenge ropes were snakes and the flying fox was made from humongous lizards holding onto each other’s tails! Luke Sun

PBL Focus

Be Respectful

Listen to others

“OH NO!”

My camp list:
1. Torch
2. Plate
3. Cutlery
4. Cup
5. Warm clothes
6. Cold clothes

Ok, I think I’ve got everything. STOP, WAIT I’ve forgotten something. The most important thing MY BLANKY!!!

“Please, please let me go back home and get it” begged Max. “I’m sorry Max I’m doing everything I can” the teacher replied calmly. “BBBut I ggget nnnightmares!” wailed Max. Max Clarke-Moar

Visual Arts
Year 6 student Emily Wesley created a range of stunning artworks at this year’s Visual Arts Workshop. Emily’s work is on display in the office.

Library News
Book Week Celebrations
It’s only one more week until our book week celebrations – Books Light Up Our World! In library lessons we have been talking about what this theme means to our students and many of them have had some wonderful ideas. Next Monday, September 7th Oliver Phommavanh will be visiting our school and talking to the students about his books and the writing process. You have been invoiced for this in your term fees. If you would like to find out more about him you can go to his website: http://www.oliverwriter.com/

We are also looking forward to our Book Parade on Wednesday 9th September. This will begin at 9:30am on the front playground. Parents are welcome to join us for the parade and see all the different book characters which light up our world.

The students are also invited to participate in our book swap that day where we aim to raise money for the Footpath Library. Please help your child to pick a book for this and send a gold coin donation. The book should be one which is appropriate for students in their grade level and one they are willing to part with. Thanks for your help and support with our celebrations

Music
Recorder Ensemble and Senior Choir
Congratulations to all the children in the recorder ensemble, who performed recently at the Sydney Opera House for the Festival of Instrumental Music and the senior choir who sang with a combined choir at the Sydney Town Hall.

All children are wonderful ambassadors for our school displaying respect, a positive attitude with their practise sessions and achieving such a commendable standard with their music. They have all been a delight to teach! A special thank you to the parents of the children for their encouragement, support and appreciation of the music programs.

Gala Concert Auditions
Auditions for the Gala Concert are being held this Wednesday and Thursday at lunchtime. These auditions are open to all children to either sing or play a musical instrument.

Primary Proms (Year Four choir)
The children in the Year Four choir are very excited and enthusiastically practising the songs knowing that they will be performing in the massed choir at the Sydney Town Hall on Tuesday, September 15th.
